

THE REAL DEAL

“by GEORGE!”

MY SON, GLEN WHITE

A licensed North Carolina broker with over a decade of experience, Glen White has worked alongside me since 2015.

Raised around real estate, Glen brings expertise in marketing, photography (including drone work), and listing strategy.

He works with both buyers and sellers, specializing in homes, land, and investment properties—with a calm, solutions-focused approach every step of the way.

WINTER HOME TIP:

After a second winter storm and a few days of icy roads and missed school, it's a good reminder that even North Carolina winters can surprise us.

Taking a few minutes to check exposed pipes, clear gutters, and make sure your heating system is running efficiently can help prevent small issues from turning into bigger ones as we move closer to spring.

What North Carolina landmark is nicknamed the “Lover’s Leap”?
